

OPERATIONAL STRUCTURE

Water management for commercial livestock production does not conform to a single model.

This is why Silver Bullet provides customized solutions.

The Silver Bullet philosophy does not stop with our engineering designs and treatment systems, but extends to offering direct sales model, custom engineering, analytical services, technical support plans, and the drive to develop mutually-beneficial relations.

These are ways our business model supports the industries we serve, and fosters a valuable level of trust with our customers and partners:

DEDICATED

TECHNICAL SERVICE & SUPPORT

INSTALLATION, COMMISSIONING & TRAINING:

Silver Bullet prides itself on ensuring our company representatives install and commission solutions, perform on-site training and administer technical documentation for all agri-tech equipment we provide.

SERVICE PLANS:

We offer standard monthly service programs that provide agri-tech maintenance, and performance reporting so that facility staff can focus on livestock production operations.

Service plan options can include routine water testing services, performance checklist of treatment components, sensor calibration and management of liquid chemicals.
